

Letter of Recommendation for Ben Brock

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is my personal recommendation for Ben Brock. For the period of 2001 to 2006 Ben worked for me. I found Ben to be consistently effective in his job, and pleasant, tackling all assignments with a sense of humor and a commitment to get the work done to a very high standard.

Besides being easy to work with, Ben takes great and deserved pride in his work. Ben has successfully developed a series of excellent web sites for our company that have resulted in high brand value and accelerated sales lead generation. During his tenure, we saw an increase in web site traffic and received consistently good feedback on our designs.

Though he was an asset to our marketing efforts, Ben was also helpful in other areas of the company. He is willing to pitch when ever he is able to make a contribution.

I highly recommend Ben for employment. He is an effective contributor and a team player. He would make a great asset to any organization.

Sincerely,

Mike Rushmore
